'Umar bin al-Khattab (may Allah be pleased with him) narrated:

"While we were with the Messenger of Allah ﷺ one day, a man came to us whose garment was extremely white and whose hair was extremely black, and we did not see any signs of travel on him, and none of us knew who he was. He came and sat before the Prophet ﷺ, resting his knees against his, and placing his hands on his thighs...He said, 'O Muhammad, tell me about faith (Imaan).' He ﷺ said: 'Imaan is to believe in Allah, His Angels, His Books, His Messengers, the Last Day, and the Divine Decree, both good and evil.' He said, 'You have spoken the truth.' ..."
